When the early summer comes that green leaves are glittered in the rain, we will have a retreat camp focusing on building a relationship between the researchers in the same generation at the relaxing Japanese-style hotel surrounded by natural scenery.

You can exchange and discuss with the researchers coming from a variety of fields, and can also refresh yourself with the open-air bath and the fresh and traditional meals apart from your daily research life.

We believe that you will get allies for your future academic career through this two days experience.

Last year, 32 researchers participated in the camp. They were mainly from K-CONNEX and HAKUBI and from a wide range of research fields, such as Medicine, Developmental biology, Ecotoxicology, Biophysics, Fluid Dynamics, Human geography, Tibetan Buddhism and Acoustic phonetics.
