

How to Manage the Administration of a World Leading Research Group at Oxford University

Sara Jolliffe

Senior Research Group Assistant at Mathematical Institute, University of Oxford

2023 Sep. 4 MON

14:00 - 15:00

Conference Room

B1F, Faculty of Medicine Bldg. B

In my talk, I will discuss how the Mathematical Biology Research Group has grown in size since I became their Research Group Assistant in 2001 and give an insight into how I manage the administrative processes of a world leading research group at Oxford University.
